EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David A. Blumenthal (Reg. 26,257) on August 17, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows: Amend the claims as below:

Claim 1. (Currently amended) A superconducting cable comprising a superconducting layer, wherein the superconducting layer has a portion whose critical current value is differentiated from the critical current value of another, normal portion, wherein:

the portion of the superconducting layer is a current limiting portion having a critical current value smaller than that of the normal portion; and the current limiting portion and the normal portion are constituted by superconducting tape having superconductive clad wires, and the current limiting portion having a smaller number of the clad wires than that used for the normal portion so that the amount of superconductor of the current limiting portion is reduced as compared to the normal portion.

Claim 19: cancel.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The allowability resides in the limitation "the current limiting portion and the normal portion are constituted by superconducting tape having superconductive clad wires, and the current limiting portion having a smaller number of the clad wires than that used for the normal portion so that the amount of superconductor of the current limiting portion is reduced as compared to the normal portion," in combination with other claimed limitation of the base claim 1.

A superconducting cable with various types of current limiting devices, such as disclosed by Hara (US Patent No. 5,617,280) in the cable system is known in the art but a cable with the all the limitations as claimed by the applicant in the base claim 1 has not been disclosed or suggested by the art of record, alone or in combination.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
